

The "New Humanity International Association" is a Non-governmental organization (NGO) founded in 1986 and active in more than 100 Countries around the world.

The aim of the association is to contribute to the creation of unity in the human family, fully respecting the individuals identities of all of its members. For this reason it spreads the idea of a united world, in all spheres of society and at all levels.

To this end it carries out, through a strong volunteer base and considerable youth involvement, cultural and economic initiatives, social and educational projects, combining a local dimension with an international one, and, as such, it is open to the contributions of all and collaborated with individuals, institutions, representatives of the religions and diverse cultures of the world towards common goals.
